High-performance people expect a high-performance environment. So they'll like the way Arrowood helps them keep work areas efficient and uncluttered. Choose single or double pedestal desks, in 3/4 or full pedestal heights. A selection of sleek credenzas, returns, organizers and storage units lets you customize to meet their needs. That's good for them—and for business.

Good looks seem to run in families. Like its handsome wood-veneer sibling, this grouping features the same smart lines and options that have made the Arrowood name an icon for contemporary styling. For example, specify 3/4 or full pedestal heights to handle your storage needs, with corresponding modesty panels for an exquisite finish. The major difference? All-laminate with a metered rim gives you budget-stretching power to appease the office bean-counters.
