- “White Glove” service
- Pre-scheduled deliveries
- Warehouse or on-site assembly
- Freight claim processing

The Team

Our full-service delivery team is centrally dispatched from our Milpitas headquarters. While en route, drivers maintain contact with dispatch, reporting on road conditions, progress, and checking for any last minute changes. Our drivers also keep in touch with customers, verifying all delivery times and locations.

Warehouse and Distribution

One Workplace’s Bay Area distribution and warehouse facility is centrally located between two major transportation corridors. This strategic placement-allows us to efficiently meet the needs of customers in all nine Bay Area counties. New products are shipped directly to our distribution center, then received, consolidated, and staged for final delivery. Product is inspected every step of the way, ensuring orders are correct, and free from any shipping damage.

One Workplace is proud to maintain a 99.9% inventory accuracy rate for product control through our warehouse. To reduce overall project costs, we ship large product orders directly to customer sites.

National Deliveries

For deliveries outside of the nine Bay Area counties, we call upon our global network of dealers who ensure quick shipment from the nearest warehouse. Your One Workplace sales executive monitors every step of the process, so from your perspective, it’s as seamless as ordering product for your local offices. You get a consistent approach, combined with a familiar team that understands your business, your individual preferences, and your working style.

You’ve invested a great deal in your facilities. Protect your valuable assets with the professional warehouse and delivery services of One Workplace.
