

rental

You need furniture fast.

- Is your office undergoing rapid expansion?
- Where are all those contractors going to sit?
- Is your new furniture order delayed? (But, your work can't wait...)
- Do you need to quickly furnish a site for a short-term project?
- Do you have a special event or conference coming up?

Whatever the application, we're ready to meet your need with our extensive rental inventory —whether the site is in town, or across the country. We can deliver furniture to your door in 48 hours.

One Workplace is a member of the Office Furniture Rental Alliance (OFRA.) This national network of furniture manufacturers and distributors was created to provide quick, consistent and professional rental solutions. This membership offers us access to a huge array of rentals. We can accommodate orders ranging from a single workstation, all the way through furnishings for an entire office building. In addition, One Workplace provides professional space planning, design, project management, delivery and installation services.
